March 8, 2015 Series: Revelation - The Triumph of the Lamb Sermon: Home At Last! Text: Revelation 21:1-22:5 Introduction I. "Behold the dwelling place of God is with man" – 21:1-8 II. Adorned in beauty - 21:9-21 III. No temple needed - 21:22-27 IV. A better Eden

- 22:1-5

Conclusion

ORNERSTONE Bible Based Gospel Centered Discipleship Focused For the Glory of Go

March 8, 2015

Series: Revelation - The Triumph of the Lamb

Sermon: Home At Last!

Text: Revelation 21:1-22:5

Introduction

- I. "Behold the dwelling place of God is with man" 21:1-8
- II. Adorned in beauty 21:9-21
- III. No temple needed 21:22-27
- IV. A better Eden 22:1-5

Conclusion

al
$

Revelation: The Triumph of the Lamb

Going Deeper:

- 1. How does the vision of what is to come for the believer adjust your perspective of what is going on in your life? How does it encourage and challenge you to stay strong and faithful in difficult times? How does it spur you on to love and good deeds?
- 2. How should God's call in Revelation 21:7 to believers impact our interaction in gospel centered discipleship? How should God's call in Revelation 21:6, 8 to unbelievers impact our gospel centered interaction in evangelism?
- 3. Following God is worth it. Read Revelation 21:1-4; 22:1-5. What does this vision of the believers final state stir within you? How does this future encourage you in the present?

Revelation: The Triumph of the Lamb

	-
Caina Danier

Going Deeper:

- 1. How does the vision of what is to come for the believer adjust your perspective of what is going on in your life? How does it encourage and challenge you to stay strong and faithful in difficult times? How does it spur you on to love and good deeds?
- 2. How should God's call in Revelation 21:7 to believers impact our interaction in gospel centered discipleship? How should God's call in Revelation 21:6, 8 to unbelievers impact our gospel centered interaction in evangelism?
- 3. Following God is worth it. Read Revelation 21:1-4; 22:1-5. What does this vision of the believers final state stir within you? How does this future encourage you in the present?