May 31, 2015 Series: Godly Marriage in an Ungodly World Sermon: Single in Christ Text: 1 Corinthians 7:6-9, 25-40 Recommended Resources on Singleness: Redeeming Singleness: How the storyline of Scripture affirms the single life -Barry Danylak Foreword For Single Men and Women (and the rest of us) in Recovering Biblical Manhood and Womanhood: A Response to Evangelical Feminism

Chapters 9 and 10 in This Momentary Marriage

ORNERSTONE Bible Based Gospel Centered Discipleship Focused For the Glory of Go

Series: Godly Marriage in an Ungodly World	ORNERSTONE
Sermon: Single in Christ	Bible Based Gospel Centered Discipleship Focused For the Glory of Go
Text: 1 Corinthians 7:6-9, 25-40
Recommended Resources on Singleness:
Redeeming Singleness: How the storyline of Scrip- ture affirms the single life - Barry Danylak
Foreword For Single Men and Women (and the rest of us) in Recovering Bibli- cal Manhood and Woman- hood: A Response to Evan- gelical Feminism
Chapters 9 and 10 in This Momentary Marriage
GODLY MARRIAGE

May 31, 2015

Godly Marriage in an Ungodly World	Godly Marriage in an Ungodly World
Going Deener -	Going Deener -

Whether you are currently single or married, what has your attitude been towards singleness? Read the chapter again. In what ways does 1 Corinthians 7 challenge your thoughts and attitudes towards singleness? If you are single have you considered a life of single undivided devotion, anxious to please the Lord? Have you considered if you might have this gift? If you do not have this gift, and do desire marriage (which is good), have you considered how your current situation ought to be leveraged in undivided devotion and service for the glory of God? We are to cultivate contentment, whatever our situation; have you, married or single, been pursuing satisfaction in Christ or in your life situation (spouse, no spouse, change in your spouse)? The Lord, in his kind mercy, calls you to repent of trying to find ultimate satisfaction and fulfillment in anything other than himself - turn to him, and find joy abundant and everlasting. Think about how you can ask your brothers and sisters in Christ to help you find you joy and satisfaction in Christ.

Whether you are currently single or married, what has your attitude been towards singleness? Read the chapter again. In what ways does 1 Corinthians 7 challenge your thoughts and attitudes towards singleness? If you are single have you considered a life of single undivided devotion, anxious to please the Lord? Have you considered if you might have this gift? If you do not have this gift, and do desire marriage (which is good), have you considered how your current situation ought to be leveraged in undivided devotion and service for the glory of God? We are to cultivate contentment, whatever our situation; have you, married or single, been pursuing satisfaction in Christ or in your life situation (spouse, no spouse, change in your spouse)? The Lord, in his kind mercy, calls you to repent of trying to find ultimate satisfaction and fulfillment in anything other than himself - turn to him, and find joy abundant and everlasting. Think about how you can ask your brothers and sisters in Christ to help you find you joy and satisfaction in Christ.